Policy Overview: Principles (cont.)

- Policy not intended to protect MONM who are the subjects or targets of criminal investigations for conduct unrelated to newsgathering activities.
- Policy does not create any enforceable rights or privileges.
- Policy outlines the process and considerations regarding using certain law enforcement tools to obtain information from, or records of, members of the news media; and regarding questioning, arresting, or charging members of the news media.
- Failure to comply with policy may constitute grounds for reprimand or other discipline.
